DR. SMILES'S WORKS.

Crown 8vo, 12s.

LIFE of ROBERT DICK,
BAKER OF THURSO.

"Robert Dick's life, from beginning to end, was a series of struggles with adversity. . . . The story here told is one of such absorbing interest that, from the first page to the last, the author keeps his reader in deep sympathy with his hero. Mr. Smiles's volume will be a more enduring monument to the scientific baker than the obelisk which proudly keeps guard over his grave in the cemetery at Thurso."—Professor Rüdler.

Crown 8vo, 10s. 6d.

LIFE of a SCOTCH NATURALIST.

"The Life of a Scotch Naturalist" is a record of success in unsuccess—of fame unmingled with any sordid advantage—of work absolutely disinterested and done 'for naught' as all the noblest work has been done."—Blackwood's Magazine.

"Brimful of interest from beginning to end."—World.

5 vols., crown 8vo, 7s. 6d. each.

LIVES of the ENGINEERS.

"You have been happy—no other profession, I think, has been happier in its biographies—in having as your historian Mr. Smiles."—Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone, at the Engineers' Banquet.

"I have just been reading a work of great interest, which I recommend to your notice—I mean Smiles's 'Lives of the Engineers.' No more interesting books have been published of late years than those of Mr. Smiles's—his 'Lives of the Engineers,' his 'Life of George Stephenson,' and his admirable little book on 'Self-Help,' a most valuable manual."—Right Hon. Sir Stafford Northcote.

Post 8vo, 6s.

INDUSTRIAL BIOGRAPHY.

"Mr. Smiles has hit upon a rich vein of ore, and works it with great success. He has the art of biography, which is by no means so easy of attainment as, judging from the number of persons who attempt this species of composition, one would imagine it to be. . . . The memoirs contain much original information, expressed with great clearness, and with a practised skill which renders the reader secure of entertainment in every page."—Times.

Post 8vo, 6s.

SELF-HELP.

"If I had read this book when I was a young man, my life would have been very different."—Such was the remark made to me by a friend on returning Smiles's 'Self-Help,' which I had given him to read."—Michele Lessona.

Post 8vo, 6s.

CHARACTER.

"This work is so exactly fitted for a gift-book (and indeed a school-boy or a boy leaving school need desire no better one) that we are inclined to mention it here. The value of Character above all more intellectual culture, the blessedness of work, the necessity of courage and self-control, the sense of duty as the guiding star of life—these are some of the topics discussed in 'Character'—not, however, as abstract propositions, but with the help of a store of illustrations drawn from the biographies of great men. The book possesses, if we may use the expression, a vital force, and can scarcely fail to stimulate the reader."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Post 8vo, 6s.

THRIFT.

"There is no book among the current literature of the day we would rather see in a young man's hand than this. Although any person in his daily experience must meet with many instances of the folly of unthrift, the frequency of the text, and it is to be feared the disposition of the age, render the lesson valueless. We cannot therefore feel sufficiently thankful that the able author of 'Self-Help' has turned his attention to it, and endeavoured, in language that has not only a literary charm about it, but bears the stamp of philanthropic earnestness, to rouse the interest and thereby the reflection of the British public in so important a matter of national welfare."—Spectator.
